

Fun Things Babies Do While You Read:

- Fall asleep
- Grab the book
- Pull your hair
- Hold the page so you can't turn it
- Sit on the floor and look at you like you're out of your mind
- Throw the book on the floor
- Point and demand "What's That?" of every object on every page.
- Babble out their own story while you read
- Open and shut the book cover and play "Peek-A-Boo"
- Listen happily for two pages, then head off - and get upset if you stop reading!
